"Ben's Kid" at the Comique tonight only. This is one of the genuine western comedy dramas enjoyable every moment. The comedy in this picture is unusually funny and pleasing, especially where Ben's Kid is raffled off to one of the cowpunchers, around the camp on that eventful night a half dozen sleepy punchers are trying to get some rest, while Ben in his bare feet is prancing around and the baby terrified with its new surroundings is making the walls ring with screams. This is only an idea to this excellent picture and should be seen by all. It certainly pleased a large audience last evening at every performance.
